Fresh off the heels of their historic Rock and Roll Hall of Fame nomination, legendary Mexican rock band MANÁ returns this fall with a spectacular new tour across the United States and Canada. Titled "Vivir Sin Aire Tour" after their iconic song of the same name, the tour promises unforgettable nights filled with energy, passion, and all the hits that have defined generations.

With a touring career spanning nearly four decades, MANÁ's impact on music and culture is undeniable. Known for their infectious energy, socially conscious lyrics, and unwavering dedication to their craft, the band continues to captivate audiences worldwide.

The Vivir Sin Aire Tour includes a stop at UBS Arena in Belmont Park, NY, on Friday, February 27, 2026. Spanning 21 cities, the tour features an unforgettable new production and a setlist filled with all the classics.

The “Vivir Sin Aire Tour” is sponsored by Yaamava’ Resort & Casino at San Manuel, where MANÁ has twice performed private shows at its intimate, world-class live entertainment theater.

This exciting announcement follows MANÁ’s recent nomination for the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame, marking them as the first all Spanish-language act to be nominated. This historic milestone recognizes their lasting impact on global music and their role as pioneers of Latin rock.

A portion of ticket sales will help establish the MANÁ “Latinas Luchonas” program in honor of Rosario Sierra, the late mother of vocalist Fher Olvera, whose strength and resilience continue to inspire the band. In partnership with the Hispanic Heritage Foundation, the program will empower Latina women entrepreneurs through scholarships, mentorship, and leadership opportunities. Together, they’ll uplift the next generation of Latina business owners, honoring their lucha, spirit, and contributions.

TICKETS: Tickets will go on sale starting on Friday, March 14 at 10 am at Mana.com.mx.

ABOUT MANÁ

With 11 albums and over 45 million copies sold, MANÁ has set the standard for Latin rock. Their groundbreaking album Dónde Jugarán los Niños is the best-selling Latin rock album of all-time. For over 34 years, the band's unwavering passion for live performances has taken them across more than 30 countries, leaving a trail of history-making moments.

MANÁ holds numerous industry records, including being the highest-selling Latin tour act of all-time. They were the first act of any genre to sell out 13 shows at the Staples Center and the first artist of any genre or language to hold an arena residency in Los Angeles, where to date they have played 16 sold-out shows to over 220,000 fans. Last year, they made history by playing their first-ever show at the OVO Wembley Arena in London to a sold-out crowd. Additionally, MANÁ became the only Latin band to headline the BottleRock Festival in Napa Valley, California.

The band also boasts the most entries by a Latin rock act on the Billboard Hot Latin Songs (33 entries) and Latin Airplay (36 entries) charts. Seven of their albums have reached | No. 1 on the Billboard Latin Charts—cementing their position as the Latin rock band with the most chart-topping records.

Their monumental impact has been recognized with prestigious accolades such as 4 GRAMMY Awards, 9 Latin GRAMMYS, and the Latin Billboard Lifetime Achievement Award. MANÁ was also named Latin GRAMMY Person of the Year and honored with a star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame.

Beyond music, MANÁ's influence extends into social causes. For 30 years, the Selva Negra Ecological Foundation has served as their social arm, combining conservation and environmental rescue with social development. Throughout their career, they have raised awareness on environmental, social, political, and human rights issues worldwide, amplifying their impact far beyond the stage.

This upcoming tour promises to be another unforgettable chapter in MANÁ's extraordinary journey, offering fans a career-spanning set packed with their biggest hits. Don't miss the chance to witness one of the greatest Latin bands of all time as they continue to make history.
