

Ricardo Arjona announces his tour “Lo que el Seco no dijo” heading across the United States including Saturday, February 7 at UBS Arena

Tickets on Sale Wednesday, September 24 at 10 am via Ticketmaster

Ricardo Arjona once again surprises his fans with one of the most ambitious tours of his career: “Lo que el Seco no dijo – Tour”, which will visit more than 30 cities across the United States. This tour features a show at UBS Arena on Saturday, February 7.

The announcement comes after a historic milestone for the singer-songwriter, who sold out 23 shows in his home country, Guatemala—an unprecedented achievement—along with 10 performances in Argentina and 7 in Chile.

“Lo que el Seco no dijo – Tour” has generated an immediate and powerful response, becoming one of the most highly anticipated shows of 2026. The tour goes far beyond a traditional concert: it combines the best scenes, spectacular production, and the unique experience that only Ricardo Arjona can deliver, reaffirming his place as one of the great creators of live experiences. Additionally, the tour reveals the title of his new album SECO.
