Belmont Park, N.Y. (Nov. 4, 2025) — With the New York Islanders' season underway and the team settling into a busy November slate of games at home, UBS Arena and hospitality partner Delaware North today announced a fresh lineup of concession offerings. Fans can look forward to bold flavors, premium ingredients and expanded value options across the arena's markets and stands.

"Our team has worked diligently to create a menu that offers a variety of flavor profiles to enhance the fan experience," said Ted Donnelly, executive chef for Delaware North Sportservice at UBS Arena. "From classic favorites to innovative new dishes, we've crafted options for every fan to find something memorable when they walk through our doors."

"We're excited to welcome back our fans to UBS Arena for New York Islanders hockey," said Mike Sciortino, UBS Arena General Manager. "These new items give fans a range of variety throughout the venue, plus add a great spin on some classics, such as the CinnaBEC which combines two of my favorites - a cinnamon bun and bacon, egg and cheese."
